This is a wonderful coloring book for anyone who loves cats or simply loves to color cats. The artwork is beautifully drawn by Honoel A. Ibardolaza. This is a new artist for me but I am sure to buy any other coloring books that the artist releases. The cat designs in the book are fun to look at and even more fun to color. There are simply so many, it is hard to choose where to start (though I started with what I call the Cinderella cat.) The artwork is reminiscent of that of Marjorie Sarnat's ÂœCreative CatsÂœ but with even more detail if you can imagine it. That there are 80 designs to color in this book makes it a real bargain. The only draw back is that the designs are printed on both sides of the page and that limits me as far as what I want to use to color the designs. The easy solution is to purchase another copy of the book and I am giving a lot of thought to that as the price is so good for the amount that is included. The designs are definitely intricate and many have small details. It might not be the best choice of coloring books for anyone who has vision or fine motor issues but if you can color in tiny spots, it is a beautiful book to add to your cat coloring book library. I've had cats as pets for many years but over the last year, the last of my very senior cats have passed away. For now, coloring cats will be my way of remembering my little friends. This book has so many different cats, it's easy for me to see my little ones in their faces and attitudes. This is what I discovered while coloring in this book and testing the paper for coloring medium:

80 Imaginative Cat Designs Printed on both sides of the page

Paper is heavyweight, white, slightly smooth and non-perforated

Glue Bound

Only 2 Designs merge into the binding area; none spread across two pages

Alcohol-based markers bleed through this paper

Water-based markers, except for Tombow brush end markers, can leave spots on the back of the page. The spots are small but you can see them on the other design.

Gel pens and India ink pens do not bleed through the page.

Colored pencils work well with the paper. Both oil and wax based pencils had good color and could layer and blend well with a pencil style blending stick.

Love cats and coloring? You're going to want this book! The artwork reminds me of Marjorie Sarnat. There are 80 adorable designs to color. The paper is a good weight and bright white, non-perforated. The designs are on both sides of the page, so markers will go through. Colored pencils will be ideal, and fineliners such as Staedtler and Stabilo should also work fine. The designs are detailed, but not enough to be overwhelming or take days to finish one picture. What's also great is that each picture is confined to one page, so no coloring in the middle, thank goodness! There isn't a picture in the book that I don't wish to color. My favorite has to be the Moscow cats standing in front of St. Basil's. I'm itching to get home and start coloring. I can see this will be one of my favorite coloring books.

Out of all the cat-themed (adult) coloring books I've bought, this one is by far the best and here's why. The pictures are charming without being cartoonish, with both small and large detail to color in. All pics are clear, complete and there are no repeats. Most images fill the page, a few left with borders but all full size. Granted, the pictures are printed on both sides of the paper but I just bought a second copy and solved that problem. The paper itself is thicker with smooth grain and has held up well to colored pencils, gel pens and metallic pens with very little bleed-through though I'd still place paper behind it to be safe. I have found it easier to cut out individual pages to color them (the pages aren't perforated) but the X-Acto knife made fast work of that. Well worth the price

I do love the details of this book -- it's like Marjorie Sarnat's Creative Cats on steroids! The only quibble I have is that it's double sided, which makes it tough to use markers. And some of the designs just call for the brilliance of markers and the ultra-fine Sharpies and Bics would look great, so stick to gel pens. I used a variety of pencils and some went on more smoothly than others; be sure to keep your pencils sharp, given the detail. It's a great value for cat lovers who love to color.

I LOVE THIS COLORING BOOK!!!!!! I bring this to work with me everyday and color when I have downtime. I found it at Walmart & decided to color it with gel pens. This is seriously the greatest thing ever. The pages are really nice quality. If you love cats and love to color you need this in your life.

I have really enjoyed colouring in the pictures in this book. They are all very intricate and although they are suitable for any level of colouring in skill, this is ideal for people that are more advanced. I would not consider myself as such but I did enjoy giving it my best shot. The level of detail in every picture is really great and I spend ages deciding on colours to use. Each picture is completely different and the expressions on the cat/cats faces was really good as they are all different. There are many pictures with either one or more cats in the picture. Some of the pages have borders while many do not. The pages are not perforated and they are double sided which is a pity. I mostly use alcohol inks so the ink bleeds through, this is usually okay if I just put cardboard underneath but as there is another picture underneath, I loose that picture. This of course is fine if you use regular colouring pencils or water colour pens or paints as there will be no bleeding of the pages. At the back of the book there are small samples of each drawing. This book does have stunning pictures and as a cat lover, that makes it even more special. I have added a photograph.

Fantastic color book and I'm not really a cat person. Fortunately, the Mystical Dogs version is coming out in a few months.
