Customer Reviews

My wife is all about nutella so this book was a hit. Her favorite so far is the smoothie. I hope she tries them all. Now, ladies I know the above my sound like I am saying something like get back in the kitchen or whatever... I am not. I love to cook, I just am not such a huge Nutella fan. I mostly cook actual food. :)

I got this book for a friend of mine who's from Italy and who loves Nutella (he makes amazing Nutelka crepes). He was genuinely impressed by the recipes in this little book, and can't wait to try them. I can't wait to be around when he does :)

Can be done by my 11 year old who is extremely happy with this book and loves Nutella. But who doesn't?

This cookbook is a little pricey for only containing thirty recipes. But they are unique recipes that you aren't likely to find in most American cookbooks. This is a European publication, but the measurements are listed in both the metric system and the English system. I recommend this for Nutella lovers.

If you're looking for recipes on the rich side, this is your book. The recipes aren't super simple, take some time to prepare and use a variety of ingredients you may not have around your house. If you're looking for "quick recipes" this may not be your best bet, but the couple recipes that I tried (truffles!) were exquisite.

Who doesn't love Nutella, right? The book was interesting, but none of the recipes really impressed me or were that creative. Most you could've already assumed you could use nutella on. Would've liked to have more non-traditional nutella items. Great novelty item.

My wife really likes Nutella ( a healthy part of a balanced meal) so I got this as a random gift. The recipes are actually real recipes and not feel like the Nutella was forced into a recipe just to make it a Nutella recipe.

Who wouldn't want to pick this up?! I am in love with Nutella, and needed to spend $8 for Free Shipping. Haha! The love doesn't continue though...For $8, ehhh it's not BAD... But I wouldn't purchase it for more. There is a variety of recipes that level easy to hard. Some look appetizing, some look like a waste. This could make a great gift for a die-hard Nutella addict, but try to check it out in a bookstore or library before making the purchase.
